

Family Matters

Overview

The aim of this session is to develop understanding of the powerful and important role of parents and how to encourage meaningful involvement.

Who is it for?

The session is aimed at anyone working with families

Outcomes

By the end of the session participants will:

- Identify barriers to meaningful involvement
- Develop effective strategies for consultation
- Understand good practice with regard to parental involvement
- Understand the need for open and honest communication and how to develop this
- Think about creative ways of communicating
- Identify ways of sustaining involvement
- Develop practical skills around engaging with parents

Format

This is a half day session

INVESTOR IN PEOPLE